COVER LETTER

Dear reader,

if you've come this far you're most likely curious of who I am and you most likely don't know me.

To change that, I will begin in a very simple, yet classical way: Hi! I'm Elina!

To spare you the long story of my life and how I became who I am, it's a whole 26 years after all, I just want you to get to know me, the present me. I'm not extraordinary in any way and I don't strive to be – my goal in life is to be and do good – it may be giving a smile to a stranger or help someone in need. That's just who I am and I would like to continue doing that in my professional life as well. I don't mean something huge that would change the whole world. I mean the small things that may help someone else achieve one of their goals or make their day. To simplify I'm more of a Samwise Gamgee than a Frodo Baggins. The later probably also gives away that I'm a bit nerdy – If only I could say I didn't have glasses I would.

If you've skimmed through my resume and portfolio you can probably come to the conclusion I'm quite creative and you're absolutely correct! You may even see my stubbornness (since I coded the gosh-darn thing) – though I would phrase it as ambitious and driven. I see it as a good quality – hopefully you do as well.

If by chance any employer has stumbled on here and reading about quirky ol' me I hope you can see my potential.

As for you other readers – friends, old colleagues or stalkers – I hope you learned something else about me today. Maybe you didn't realize how quirky I am – surprise!

Even though I'm on the introvert side I still enjoy some human interaction and conversation – even more preferably over a coffee and bun. I look forward to hearing from you, whoever you are :)

Sincerely,
Elina
